

New SWGA Member Marj Francolini

March 30, 2024

We are excited to introduce our newest member, Marj Francolini. Marj was encouraged to join the SWGA by her Thursday golf group, and she finally gave in. We are so glad she has joined us.

Here are a few tidbits about Marj. Marj and her husband, Rick, are both from Connecticut. Marj lived in Connecticut all her life and only moved to Georgia to be near three of her four kids who live in the North Atlanta area. Marj and Rick moved to Sun City about four years ago to be close, but not too close, to the Georgia kids. However, she still has one daughter in Connecticut. Marj has been blessed with three grandchildren who bring a bright smile to her face when she mentions them.

Like many SWGA members, Marj was a teacher. Before she retired, she taught and became a Director, at a post secondary technical school for 25 years and loved helping women and men find a successful trade skill for their future.

Besides golf, Marj likes to knit, but keeps her projects simple...like baby clothes. She especially likes the golf road trips she and Rick take regularly.

Marj has a good story about how she and Rick first met and started dating. Be sure to ask her about it.
